TUCKER CAPTURED.

THE DEAF-MUTE MURDERER BAGGED IN HIS MOUNTAIN HOME.

He is Defended by His Amazonian Wife and Daughter-A Bloody Fight-Detective Reported Killed.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] Newcastle, Va., February 20.—The noto-rious Alexander alias "Deaf" Tucker, whose nick-name originates from the fact that he is really deaf and dumb, was arrested this morning at 2 o'clock at his than a year ago he was convicted of killing J. M. Helms.

A MOUNTAIN FORTERSS.

Pending the execution of the sentence, by the aid of his wife who was loyal to him and an Amazon in a fight, he escaped from jail. Since then his mountain home has been as a fortress, his children even being on the alert to prevent capture. Many attempts have been made by both the officers of the law and private citizens, but all were futile from the fact that his unerring Winchester, from the least sus-

Eureka Agency, Charleston, W. Va., arrived upon the scene as "tramps," sestable Lewis Scott. They laid their plans for the capture of Tucker, which was finally accomplished.

A PROBABLE VENDETTA. "Kentucky Bill" is supposed to be killed, and parties are now searching for his body. Tucker's wife and daughter defended him to the last, and it is feared that another Hatfield-McCoy vendetta may result, as his brother John and the remainder of the simere-Mills. family are represented as being desperate.

THE OUTLAW WOUNDED.

The prisoner is now in jail here wounded, but to what extent the surgeons, Doctors Coder, Morgan, and Hogo, are not able to say. He is about fifty years of age, of fine physique, and good intellect. I am informed that several murders committed heretofore are indirectly connected with him, but sufficient proof could not be gained to bring him to the bar of justice.

ORNERAL RELIEF FELT.

Great relief is felt by the community generally at the capture of this desperation.

A LAUGHABLE LECTURE.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Lafferty, of your city, will deliver his lecture at the Methodist church on the "Old Times and the New" next Wordnesday night.

Quite a number of fish have been caught in North river within the past two weeks. Yesterday a gentleman captured a carp that weighed nime and a quarter pounds. There are plenty of fish in this stream, and when the fishing season begins there will be rare sport for those who devote themselves to it. The Tidewater people do not properly appreciate fishing. The big, game trout and hass which abound in the mountain streams furnish the sportsman the greatest amusement.

Considerable interest is being manifested and extensive preparations made for the "Temple of Fame" entertainment for the benefit of the Confederate Memorial Association, to be held in the Public Hall Easter week. It will continue three nights, and already over one hundred little boys and girls have been selected for one of the special features of the entertainment. The ladies hope by this means to complete the sum necessary to erect a magnificent monument on the University grounds to our Confederate dead.

HAMPTON, Va., February 20.—G. W. Freeburger, the man who is confined in the jail here, charged with the henious crime of assaulting and murdering his little stepdaughter, is a small man below the medium height, and does not look like a man who would be guilty of such a crime, though it is authoritatively stated that he is a man who was very cruel with his family. He does not appear very much disturbed, claiming that he can easily clear himself and account for his whereabouts on that fatal might. Opinion is divided on the subject, many persons claiming that the developments being made are pointing strongly to him, whilst others claim that the chain of circumstances is very defective, there being many missing links, and that while he may be the man the evidence in so far would not justify a conviction. would not justify a conviction. MILITARY PRECAUTIONS.

A detachment from the military company here is guarding the jail at night for fear of an attempt at lynching, but now that he is in the clutches of the hw it is not probable that an attempt will be made. A special grand jury has been called, and will investigate the case on next Wednesday. Jacob Heffelfinger, Esq., is foreman of said jury.

A BIG BLAZE IN FRANKLIN.

Large and Fully Insured. Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

Franklin, Va., February 19.—This morning at 8:30 o'clock a fire broke out in the mattress factory operated by A. W. Hayes & Co., situated in the rear of the brick block of buildings on the east side of Main street, which resulted in burning the said factory, the stables adjoining, and two small frame stores. A high wind was blowing from the east at the time and it looked as if it was almost impossible to save the business part of the town, as a number of small frame buildings lay between the fire and the brick block.

The PLAMER CHECKED.

land & Co., thus saving the best part of the town. The loss will not be very large, and we are informed was partly insured. This fire shows the absolute folly of requiring bruck buildings to be put up on certain streets, and then allowing a lot of frame shanties to be erected in the rear of said jouidings.

WHAT MAY POSSIBLY HAPPEN. By fires starting in such shanties Suffolk has been twice burned, and we should not be surprised any day when our town should be again burned by the same agency. An almost continuous row of frame houses extends from the sent of the fire this morning to the brick buildings, one of which, a frame house 20240, coming one of which, a frame house 20x40, opractically within twelve inches of the house, has just been erected by consent of the Town Council. We would not be surrested this morning at 2 o'clock at his home about ten miles from this place, near pany doing business here was to largely increase the rate on account of such a condition of things.

form, Mr. Cleveland would still be any choice. While President Cleveland may have been at times open to the charge of mugwumpery. I cannot forget that he was elected on a Democratic platform which had civil-service reform for one of its main planks. I must say, too, that within a very short time after the Democratic Administration came into office there was not a fiepublican postmaster left in my district except one, and that was at Woodstock, the residence of the late Senator Riddleberger, where 'senatorial courtesy,' as it is called, prevented the removal of the man before the expiration of his regular term of office. And, above all, I cannot forget the fair play that President Cleveland gave to the South both in the distribution of offices and in the execution of the laws. Although the reputation of these seeds is so well established, yet having accepted the right of their exclusive saie in Richmond and vicinity we deem it proper to make the following statement of our experience in handling them for the past fifteen years, in which we have sold over a thousand pounds of a single variety of their Cabbage Seed, perhaps as many of their Tomato Seed, and each season thousands of vounds of their Turnip, and other varieties in proportion, scarcely a complaint has reached us, and we have the almost universal testimony of our customers to their purity of strain and excellence of quality.
